Artwork by Oceanna

001: Freedom

To the glory of that moment when, one chooses to rise up, to break free, to fly again.

To the choice of moving through all odds, all difficulty, moving beyond all reason, by deeply inviting life's Fiery Spirit to lead on.

We salute this strength and clarity of Purpose that lives within each Soul.

~ by Oceanna

002: Passion

Rise up O' my Soul!
Reach for the truth as if all life lived within it.

You are a starry universe.
When you push off with your foot, a thousand new roads become clear.

~ by Oceanna

003: Alchemy

As above, so below.
The raising and changing of denser materials into Gold.

The raising and changing of our thoughts and activities to greater purpose.

As we connect, earth to heaven, as we choose to breathe our love into every moment of life, so do we create our world, opening the way for the inexhaustible energies of the cosmos to pour into human manifestation.

~ by Oceanna

004: Emergence of the Feminine

Woman rises, breaking through the surface of the tides.

Glorious, passionate, powerful, graceful.

Will you celebrate my ecstasy?

Emergence of the Feminine...
ally of the elements.

Nature's beauty in human form.

Rise up, hear the call, you are needed in your ecstatic fullness.

~ by Oceanna

007: Surrender

How may one receive the infilling nectar of Divine Love, unless there is an absolute emptying, a surrendering of all that has come before this moment?

~ by Oceanna

009: Yes

Yes to the call that is activated within us.

Yes to all who will answer and stretch,
And reach for the greater vision.

The time is Now.

I who will answer and stretch, and reach for the greater vision.

The time is Now.

~ by Oceanna

Artwork by Oceanna

O10: Ecstasy

Every preference, at its core, is the call to God's Garden.
Every desire,
be it of flesh or of thought, is Life's Fire —longing to know and receive the Beloved.
Some say, "have no desire."
I say, "use the desire, the fire, as fuel to ignite the path, ever returning Home again into the Arms of Divine Love." Softening into ecstasy, is to completely dissolve all notion of any thing — any thought other than the All Embracing,
Warming
Breath of Source.
~ by Oceanna

O12: Return to Union

Love's call for the Return to Union, to Heart, to Soul.
This union is the harmonious blending and completion within the New relationship of male and female.
This merging of light and dark, sun and moon, heaven and earth... is our humanness coming into full integration with Soul.
Here is the point where the apparent boundaries between "two" disappear into Heart's Ecstatic Union.
~ by Oceanna

O13: As Above, So Below

The golden proportion geometry represents the Evolution of Consciousness.
From the place of the Eagles Vision, the angel observes humanity, as a divine message is offered...
"Be still, Be at peace, Be kind."
~ by Oceanna

O15: Truth

What is offered from the empty hand?
The intent of Truth is to open, illuminate and magnify the doorway to Freedom.
Evolution of the Soul is fed by this Truth.
~ by Oceanna

O17: Lotus Heart

Like a tender lover, offering the most intimate embrace, The open heart invites us into rich and profound depths.
All questions are answered here...all wanting, is fulfilled.
Within the song of the Lotus Heart is found
The ever waiting, ever patient
Presence of Eternity.
~ by Oceanna

Oceanna's cards are available with or without her amazing poetry, beautifully formatted on the back of each card.

Bhaisajyaguru, Medicine Buddha

Shakyamuni Buddha, as Bhaisajyaguru, the Medicine Buddha, sits on a throne at the center of the palace, at the center of Sudarsana, the city of medicine. In attendance are gods of the devaloka, hermit scholars, Hindu dieties, and Buddhist followers, including bodhisattvas and devout students.

Each class of students receives teachings appropriate to their own level of understanding of the fundamental nature of reality and the lives of beings.

"If one meditates on the Medicine Buddha, one will eventually attain enlightenment, but in the meantime one will experience an increase in healing powers both for oneself and others and a decrease in physical and mental illness and suffering."

—Lama Tashi Namgyal

Tibetan Tangka—1800-1899

White Tara

White Tara is a goddess who embodies the spirit of Compassion. She wears the Bodhisattva ornaments. A Bodhisattva vow is to continue to return to this world until the enlightenment of all sentient beings. The White Tara recognizes our oneness in love. Operating from the space of this compassionate love contributes directly to a long and fulfilling life.

Tara has seven eyes: the two usual eyes, plus one in the center of her forehead and eyes in her hands and feet. These indicate that she sees all suffering and all cries for help, even in the human world, even in the worlds of pain, using both ordinary and psychic or extraordinary means of perception. She carries day lotuses.

White Tara has her own mantra. It is: OM TARE TUTARE TURE MAMA AYURPUNYE JNANA PUTIN KURU SVAHA. (Ohm Tahray Totahray tooray mahmah ahyoopoonyay jahnah pooten koroo swah hah).

Tibetan Tangka—1800 to 1850
In Private Ojai Collection

The Four-Faced Bodhisattva Avalokiteshvara

The four faces represent loving kindness, compassion, sympathetic joy for others, and equanimity.

Endowed with complete illumination, and devoted to the salvation of others, this bodhisattva refrains from entering the blissful state of nirvana to remain here below and save the creatures of the earth.

Every person whose heart is moved by love and compassion, who deeply and sincerely acts for the benefit of others without concern for fame, profit, social position or recognition expresses the activity of Avalokiteshvara.

Tibetan Tangka—1875-1925
In Private Ojai Collection

Kuan Yin

Kuan Yin, known to many as the Goddess of Compassion, is a representative of the Divine Mother. She transmutes the cause, effect, record and memory of negative karma.

Kuan Yin is a bodhisattva, a being of wisdom destined to become a Buddha, who has taken the bodhisattva vow to save all beings from suffering and forgo the final state of Buddhahood (Nirvana) until this is accomplished.

Kuan Yin embodies the flame of mercy and compassion for all. We can pray to her for comfort, healing, guidance and succor, for compassion, mercy and forgiveness not only for ourselves but also for all mankind. She shows us the way to free ourselves from all hardness of heart through the flame of forgiveness and how to have compassion for all.

TRC02: Oak Tree

TRC10: Enchanted

An enchanted place where pink flowers fall from green skies
And soft smiles are seen in a noble horse's eyes.

TRC03: Horse Play

TRO4: Spirit Filled

May the Spirit of Light Shine Out From Within
To Bring Forth Compassion
And Joy This Day.

TRC08: Mermaid

In this moment, not a care in the world.
May you always hold onto peace and believe in your dreams.

TRC05: Escape

Escape in the Freedom
Of Special Moments
That Life Provides.

TRC01: Prayer Path

Surrounded by sacred beauty, a smile grows from within.
As you nurture a heart of gratitude, prayers go out and peace comes in.
